THE class of 1936 is now an integral part of Ohio Wesleyan. A majority of their number have been introduced into the portals of the Greek letter organizations; many have made their advent into the campus activities via Freshman Debate, Freshman Players and the Transcript; and the entire class has been molded into one homogeneous group of Wesleyanites through the influence of the various traditions and customs which are prevalent on the campus.

THE CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX

IN THE fall this group was initiated to the routine life of the campus by the customary Freshman Days. Soon after a large number were the proud possessors of the pledge buttons of the various fraternities and sororities, the latter's rushing being deferred only a short while this year. Later the frosh men organized with amazing rapidity to leave in their wake a sorely defeated soph class at the conclusion of the traditional contests. » » » Lester Parker and Margaret Senn were elected as class officers.

Its ball room has been the scene of many festivities, "Bargain Brawl" and "Delaware Drizzle" being notable.

STUYVESANT • HALL •

THIS morning I pulled down and leafed over the twenty or more copies of Le Bijou which are a part of the permanent equipment of the President's office. I found them to be a fascinating moving picture of the old and new Ohio Wesleyan and to show that the original spirit of the school continues to permeate each material change. So I welcome this new issue, one more volume of history, pictorially presented, of the lengthening series; each volume the treasure of its own class and the pride of the university.

MISS NICHOLSON

SANDERS

FOR sixteen years Dean Smyser has efficiently and skillfully served Ohio Wesleyan, first in the English Department and at present as Dean of the College. Having had extensive study in both Europe and America, he is well-informed in the field of literature and continues to instruct students today. » » » Miss Florence B. Nicholson, the new Dean of Women, has already proven to be very capable and has won many friends. Her creative ideas were enthusiastically welcomed. The men of Ohio Wesleyan are guided by Dean Sanders, whose combined theological and psychological experiences admirably equip him to fulfill his duties.

THE "labs" are those places where Ohio Wesleyan students work three hours for one hour's credit amid odors ranging from pickled shark to corned beef and cabbage. Only in the Business Administration "lab" are these odors absent, and there the

 However, despite the disagreeable environment, the laboratories form an essential part of college education. It is in them that theory is either in the "lab" are more apt to abide with the student

MEN'S ATHLETIC AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION ADMINISTRATION

ATHLETICS at Ohio Wesleyan are under the supervision of a staff of full-time coaches and their assistants. The direction of this staff is under the control of an athletic council which consists of the director of athletics, five faculty members, and two undergraduates. The faculty members are appointed by the President, and the undergraduates are elected by the student body, one junior being elected each year for a period of two years. It is the duty of this council to approve or disapprove all athletic awards, accept or reject the athletic budget, and in general to determine the athletic policies of the school.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ADMINIS- TRATION

MISS BARBARA PAGE

THE Women's Athletic Administration instructs all freshman and sophomore women and majors in the Department of Physical Education. This year Miss Barbara Page was head of the department with Miss Carolyn Tarbell, Miss Thelma Wagner, and Miss Nellie Eastburn, as assistants. Those majoring in the department are also employed as instructors in minor sports. » » » » »

MANAGERIAL AND INTRA- MURAL AD- MINISTRATION

GEORGE STATEN
Intramural Director

IN COMPLETING the most successful year of its existence, the Intramural Department has sponsored twenty-four varied activities in team and individual sports with 92% of the men students participating in one or more events. An efficient student managerial staff assists George Staten, director, in carrying the program toward the goal of the department, "Athletics for All."

PRESIDENT

OF THE STUDENT BODY

IT HAS been a duty and a pleasure to serve as the president of the student government on this campus. As I sit in retrospective of the past year, realizing that the word "cooperation" is the keynote to a successful administration, I feel a certain amount of satisfaction with the way in which the term was carried out. Not only was this spirit of cooperation evident among the students but between students and the faculty, and I take this opportunity to thank all those who worked on the various committees. And in closing, may I say I hope I have proven myself worthy of the position bestowed upon me by my fellow students.

Clayton Herrick

STUDENT COUNCIL

Top row (left to right): Palmer, DeVoss, Herrick, Holloway, Huit. * Second row: Smith, Jacques, Barber, Daugherty, Pontius, Babbs. * Bottom row: Yoemans, Davis, Heistand, D. Wilking, Fosdick, Luther.

THE Student Council is the only strictly student legislative power controlling campus activities. The officers of the council are the President and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body, while the officers of the four classes, presidents of the various student organizations, and the editors of the school publications make up the membership of this body. » » » The council acts as a clearing house for student as well as student-faculty problems of campus-wide importance. Suggestions are made by the students representing the various activities of the college, and the action taken is likely to represent the wishes of the majority of the student body. » » » During the school year the services rendered to the students by the council have gone a long way toward determining a number of the school's policies. » » » This body therefore is considered an integral part of the Ohio Wesleyan student administration.

COMMITTEE

STUDENT CHEST

Top row (left to right): Greene, Davies, Bacon, Gordon, Luther. » Bottom row: Huit, Ferguson, Daugherty, C. Young.

THE Student Chest Committee supervises the collection of voluntary contributions from students and faculty for a fund which provides money for philanthropy and the operation of two very essential university organizations, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. » » » The work of the "Y" organizations in their respective fields includes adjusting incoming students to their new environment, aiding other students with their problems, supervising local philanthropic work, and maintaining valuable current literature relating to their purposes. Chairman Paul Daugherty this year conducted the drive along more personal lines than has been done heretofore. Out of the $3400 goal for this year, $2600 was pledged.

ELECTIONS COMMITTEE

Top row (left to right): Gaylor, Dean. * Bottom row: Yates, Graner, Mason, Redrup, Polley.

THE members of the Elections Committee are appointed by the President of the Student Body for a term of one year. This committee assumes responsibility in all matters pertaining to student body, class, and special elections, such as announcement of candidates nominations, and regulation of voting. » * » The Chapel Committee is part of a joint committee on chapel and religious work which includes faculty and student members. The committee assists in giving form and purpose to chapel services and coordinates the religious activity of the school.

CHAPEL COMMITTEE

PREVIOUS to 1927 the University Health Service of Ohio Wesleyan had been managed by a student-faculty committee, but in that year it received its present organization as the Department of Student Health. The department is a member of the Ohio Student Health Association and the American Student Health Association, the latter having a membership of 128 colleges and universities. » » » Appropriations from the student fees finance this health service. During the year 524 cases were received at the hospital, while 9,110 students were treated in the office and hospital clinics. Last year the hospital building was overhauled and redecorated. » » » The personnel of the department includes: George D. Lowry, M. D., former superintendent of Methodist Hospital, Peking, China; Miss Ella M. Marshall, R. N., graduate of Norton Memorial Hospital, Louisville, Ky.; Miss Bertha L. Smith, R. N., former superintendent of Jane M. Case Hospital of Delaware; Miss Irene Coon, graduate of University Hospital, Columbus; and Miss Edith Worline, a graduate of San Antonio Hospital, Kent, O.

UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICE

THE Women's Student Government Association is one organization on the campus of which every woman is automatically a member. The officers and class representatives are elected from the student body at large to sit on the two boards, the Executive and the Judiciary. Many meritable projects have been introduced by the various committees of the association which have tended to make college life more enjoyable. Eleanor Smith is the executive president, while Pauline Heistand is head of the judiciary board.

WSGA JUDICIARY AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

TWIN "W" signifies "Wesleyan Women." Girls possessing the qualities of good sportsmanship, teamwork, and unusual skill in one sport are awarded letters. New members are selected by the active members and are approved by the faculty of the Women's Physical Education Department. » » » Twin "W" supports W. A. A. in all its activities. The outstanding objective of Twin "W" this year has been to obtain and furnish rooms for W. A. A. The girls have organized and coached the Freshmen women in all sport activities. » » » The officers of Twin "W" are Mary Allen, president; Ruth Kopp, secretary.

WESLEYAN WOMEN

WOMAN'S Athletic Association provides a sport for every girl. It invites to membership any girl enrolled in the university. There are two classes of membership, active and associate. Active members are those who have participated in one seasonal sport, while associate members are those who have paid the budget fee but have not taken active part in the program of the association. » » » The object of the organization is to teach cooperation through sports, qualities of true citizenship, and preparation towards a fuller appreciation of life. It encourages every woman to develop character and physical soundness through games and other forms of exercise. » » » The officers of the Association unite with the social chairman, publicity chairman, the heads of the various sports, the presidents of Orchesis, Twin "W", Swimmers' Club, Outing Club, and the faculty advisor to form an executive board. The officers of the executive board are: Lucille O'Brien, president; Margaret Spiegle, vice-president; Florence Clevenger, secretary; Frances Seederly, treasurer. Miss Nellie Eastburn is the advisor of the organization. » » » Outstanding events sponsored by the organization during the past year include: a party for Freshmen Women, inter-organization and inter-class tournaments, the pie feast, a kid party, the Dance Drama, and a field day.

THE Ohio Wesleyan Young Men's Christian Association plays an essential part in college life. Its importance may be fully realized if its purpose is stated. » » » "The Ohio Wesleyan 'Y' seeks to make campus life richer and happier through its fellowship of men who are trying to make their college career purposeful. In doing this it emphasizes the development of concern and responsibility for the serious social problems of the day." Local officers are:

THE Y. W. C. A. includes in its membership more than three-fourths of the women enrolled at Ohio Wesleyan. Its schedule includes a freshman program, social service work in Delaware, international projects and study groups, association and cabinet meetings, and student forums. » » » The purpose of the organization is expressed in the following sentiment: "We, the girls of Ohio Wesleyan University, unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing understanding of God. We determine to make this life possible for all people. » » » In this task we seek to know Jesus Christ and to follow Him." » » » Officers of the Y. W. C. ASSOCIATION

CAPTAIN JOHN RAUGH

JOHN RAUGH for four years has given unbegrudgingly of his service to Ohio Wesleyan on the gridiron. According to the coach, "Johnnie" is an ideal football player because of both his ability and his attitude toward the game. John made his debut for Wesleyan in his sophomore year against Army. Since then he has been the mainstay of the Red and Black line. During his football career he was twice placed on the All-Buckeye team and this year was elected captain.

THE 1932 football season at Ohio Wesleyan provided an unusual spectacle in gridiron battles. After winning five of its first six games, Wesleyan turned an about face and lost its last three tussles by decisive scores. Inasmuch as a great part of the squad was composed of inexperienced sophomores, it was generally supposed that the team would grow stronger as the season progressed. However, on the contrary, the last game saw it being completely outplayed by an Ohio U. team with which it entered the game at even odds. * * *

In the earlier games, several men showed enough ability to warrant good prospects for several years. John Turley, sophomore fullback, showed remarkable passing ability, while other sophomores, including Sayers at tackle, Wertz and White at halfbacks, and Mills at guard, were outstanding at various intervals. Vandervort and Raugh were best among the veterans, the latter receiving an All-Buckeye guard position. Dickerson's last year of competition was marred by a shoulder injury which prevented his participation in many of the games. Harry Barber, 1931 All-Buckeye tackle, never got started and failed to show the form which he had that year.

The Battling Bishops downed their first opponents of the season, all of the points being made in the third and fourth quarters. White and Turley did outstanding work for the Bishops.

O. W. U., 7 » » » » OHIO STATE, 34

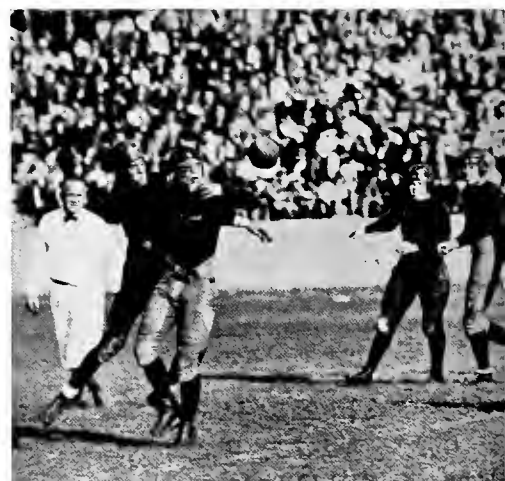

Wesleyan journeyed to Columbus for their second game of the season and were defeated 34 to 7. At the end of the third quarter State had only a 14 to 7 lead, but in the last quarter they found the scoring punch and ran away from the Bishops. Vandervort ran 52 yards to give Wesleyan its score.

O. W. U., 19 » » » » SYRACUSE, 12

Wesleyan pulled one of the season's surprise upsets by going to Syracuse with the odds against them and winning by a score of 19 to 12. Throughout the entire game the Orange and Blue were completely out-classed by the Bishops' strong line. Wertz made two and Vandervort one score for O. W. U.

O. W. U., 19 » » » » WITTENBERG, 0

Wesleyan marked up its third win of the season by blasting Wittenberg's hopes for a championship. Vandervort, Wertz, Turley, and White displayed a brilliant offensive game. Wittenberg failed to show the power which has characterized its teams in recent years and made only one scoring threat. Vandervort made a spectacular 58-yard run to the Red Devil's two-yard line just before the final whistle was blown.

G A M E

O. W. U., 25 » » » » » DEPAUW, 13

Ohio Wesleyan added Depauw to its list of victims in a game at Greencastle. Depauw opened the scoring with a 74-yard run by Fribley. Wertz then scored from the one-yard line and again on Turley's pass. Near the end of the game, Dickerson intercepted a Depauw pass and ran 30 yards for a touchdown.

O. W. U., 24 » » » » » DENISON, 0

The Battling Bishops had little trouble with the Moundbuilders from Denison in the annual Dad's Day game. The game was marked by the numerous substitutions made on the Wesleyan team. The visitors threatened to score only once.

O. W. U., 3 » » » » » MIAMI, 26

Ohio Wesleyan's chances for a Buckeye championship were smothered in the landslide administered by Miami's Redskins. Outplayed and outclassed in every department, the Bishops were able to do but very little against Miami's powerful club.

O. W. U., 6 » » » » » WESTERN RESERVE, 19

Western Reserve upset the Battling Bishops in a surprise attack at League Park, Cleveland. Picked as the underdog, the Red Cats made their first score within five minutes of the kick-off when Finnegan returned a punt 62 yards for a touchdown.

O. W. U., 0 » » » » » OHIO UNIVERSITY, 25

Ohio U. gave Wesleyan a white-washing in the final game, placing the Bishops in a tie for third place in the B. A. A. Their line was too strong, their backfield too swift for O.W.U.

RESULTS

MUCH credit is due to the cheer leaders of the student body headed by "Jimmie" Williams. These men very ably and faithfully devoted their time in helping to organize and improve the cheering sections at football and basketball games. They were well rewarded for their services by the way the student body of the university responded to their efforts. » » » During the football season, Friday chapels were turned over to the cheer leaders who took charge of the cheering and the announcement of the captaincy for the game on the following day. * * * Cheering at football games this year was better organized than before. Several new cheers which were introduced to the student body at the chapel mass meetings soon became favorites at all of the athletic contests. » » » Hospitality to the visiting schools is one of the chief aims of the cheer leaders. Through the medium of the welcoming cheers and the credit given for well-executed plays, they show the visiting team and the supporters of that team that Ohio Wesleyan University is genuinely hospitable. » » » Supporting "Jimmie" Williams, during the year, as assistant cheer leaders were: Chester Mirick, John Eckler, and Paul Stubbs.

YEA! WESLEYANI

THIS year the Ohio Wesleyan Freshman Football squad was unusually small. However, the players who did report possessed a fine spirit and showed signs of real ability. » » » The Frosh squad, coached by Ray Detrick, put the varsity through many afternoons of hard scrimmage, using the offensive plays and defensive set-up of the teams on the Ohio Wesleyan schedule. » » » During the year many varsity prospects were uncovered. On the line Ottenbreit, Overturf, Coleman, Huth, Schumacher, Brittain, Roberts, and Rybolt played well. At end Alexander, Stultz, Johnson, and Longworth showed considerable promise. In the backfield Lyons, Lockhart, Mohler, Lannigan, Sell, and Dann performed in fine fashion. » » » No numerals were awarded to the Frosh Football squad this year until after spring practice. The awarding of numerals is handled in this way in order to determine whether or not the player will be scholastically eligible for varsity competition. This, the coaches feel, places additional emphasis on grades which are essential to a student's engaging in athletics at O. W. U.

BABY BISHOPS-NOW

THE 1932 cross country team won one, tied one, and lost two of its dual meets. Although this record is not as brilliant as that of the past years, it is quite successful. » » » After a practice meet with Ohio State, the Wesleyan harriers tied Oberlin 28-28. Following the Oberlin meet, "Jay" Thompson, number two man on the squad, did not compete for Wesleyan. At the next meet Denison defeated the Bishops 39-20. Miami also proved too strong and won 35-20. In the final dual meet Wesleyan came through to defeat Cincinnati 31-24. » » » At the Buckeye meet the team managed to garner third place with the Wesleyan men finishing in the following order: "'Clayt" Herrick, first; Melford Heck, eighth; "Vern" Holloway, fourteenth; Frank Proctor, seventeenth; "Jay" Thompson, eighteenth; and Kenneth Anthony, twentieth. Miami won with 34½ points; Denison was second with 37½; Wesleyan third with 58, and Cincinnati last with a count of 91. » » » The prospects for a good team in 1933 are bright. Only two men, Herrick and Holloway, will be lost by graduation, and several promising freshmen will be in the running. Clayton Herrick, coach and captain of the team for the past two years, will be a difficult man to replace. He had the enviable record this year of winning every race in which he participated. » » » The following Bishops received their letters: Herrick, Holloway, Thompson, Heck, and Proctor.

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

INTRAMURAL cross-country at Ohio Wesleyan attracts more participants than any other intramural event. Because of the keen competition it is quite an accomplishment to win. In 1932 the Independents were victorious in the upper-class race. Those in the lead were: Sluhan, Phi Kappa Tau; Kettell, Delta Tau Delta; and Dickey, Independent. Sluhan's time was 10 min. 35 sec.

LAST fall the Delta Tau Delta freshmen succeeded in garnering the least number of points and were therefore declared the victors of the Frosh cross-country run. Although the first three to cross the line were: Slade, Phi Gamma Delta; Walter, Phi Kappa Tau; and Worthington, Star and U.; the "Delts" had an abundance of men who finished high on the list. The fastest time registered for this cross-country run was 11 minutes and 57 seconds.

REPRESENTATIVE SOPHOMORES

- "Jack" Palmer, the voice from Indiana, is the best argument against campus politics. He is president of the sophomore class,—also a triple threat in football: grumble, stumble, and fumble.
- Mary Iams is destined to become one of Wesleyan's big "I ams" because of her "cardinal" virtues, and also because of that one "Branch" of college life in which she seems so interested.
- "Doc" Wertz, student representative to the Athletic Council, once caused the school much elation by way of a typographical error which named him as an All-American football selection. Despite the mistake he is still the talk of the "down-town" coaches who guide the destinies of football players.

THE managers of all the athletic teams at Ohio Wesleyan University are brought into contact through the medium of an organization known as "The Red Circle." While this organization is not very well known by the students in general as to its functions and purposes, it has a most important part to play in connection with visiting athletes. Its duty is to make accommodations for visiting teams and to furnish entertainment for them. Membership in this organization is limited to junior and senior managers of the many athletic teams of the school. Cooperation between all sports is one of the fundamental purposes of this group. THE 1932-33 varsity basketball team finished second in the B. A. A., behind Ohio U. and Wittenberg, who were tied for first place. The Battling Bishops suffered four defeats in nineteen games. Wittenberg defeated them twice, while Western Reserve and Ohio U. each gave them the short end of the score once. » » » The squad suffered no great loss from last year's graduation because of the manner in which Turley, Stammler, and Prech, sophomores, stepped in and worked with last year's veterans, Hendricks, Bolton, Kolb, Duncan, Dickerson, and Milby. Boppel, a junior who was out last year because of sickness, saw much action this year. » » » Individual scoring honors again went to Clarence Hendricks, center, who managed to retain his reputation as a consistent scorer. Hendricks was closely followed by Prech, Duncan, Stammler, and Bolton. The team gathered over 700 points. Following are varsity letter men: Turley, Kolb, Prech, Hendricks, Stammler, Duncan, Bolton, Dickerson, and Boppel.

KOLB

PRECH

STAMMLER

● "Bob" Kolb played a cool, steady game and showed exceptional proficiency at the pivot post. "Don" Boppel understudied Hendricks at center. "Dixie" Dickerson was not used as much as in previous years but won his third varsity basketball letter.

● "Mike" Prech, sophomore forward, was one of the "finds" of the year. At times he exhibited uncanny accuracy for the basket. Howard Stammler, another sophomore, proved to be one of the finest guards which Wesleyan has seen in many years. His long-range shooting was phenomenal.

DICKERSON

TURLEY

● John Turley, sophomore forward, showed an accurate eye for the basket. He was especially valuable in working "block" plays. "Dick" Milby, senior forward, finished his third season on the Ohio Wesleyan varsity by playing a fine game against Oberlin.

MILBY

HENDRICKS

● "Bolts" Bolton was adjudged the most valuable player on the squad and thus received the Facchini Trophy. Clarence Hendricks was high scorer of the team for the second successive year. "Russ" Hendricks, sophomore forward, also displayed great possibilities.

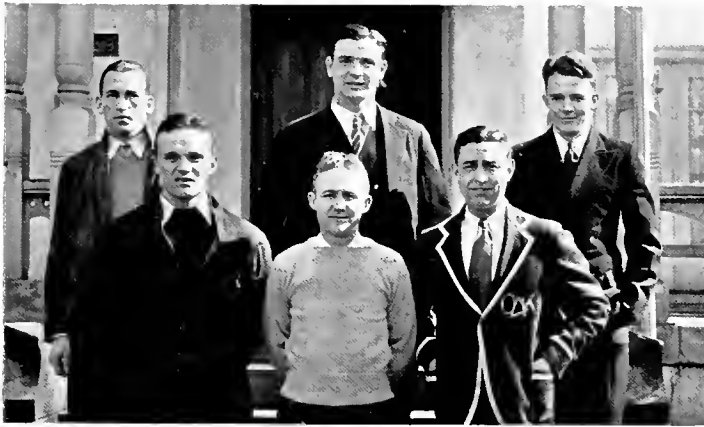

R. HENDRICKS

THE Baby Bishop Basketball squad this year was the most versatile and talented outfit to arrive on the campus in some years. According to their coach, George Staten, they will go a long way toward filling the positions on the varsity next year, and because of their ability, strong varsity squads are looked for in the future. » » » The freshman squad this year had a thorough drilling in all phases of college basketball. At their practices they were taught the fundamentals of the game, the various shots and correct forms being stressed above team play. In their scrimmages with the varsity they put into action the different playing styles of the other Buckeye schools both offensively and defensively. Their ability to set up these plays was a great help to the upper-classmen. » » » The freshman basketball team also played preliminary games with teams composed of the best intramural and upperclass players whenever the varsity performed on its home court. » » » The squad this year contained several men of outstanding ability. Stark, Talos, and Parker will probably be in the line-up next year, while Denny, Mewhort, Hensley, Huth, and Sell have excellent possibilities of making the varsity.

BASKETBALL

DUE to the efforts of some of Wesleyan's aquatic enthusiasts, swimming in 1932 was returned to an intercollegiate basis. The program was made possible by the funds supplied by the minor sports dance. The team lost two of its three meets, one to Western Reserve and one to Wittenberg, whom they had previously defeated. Perhaps the most outstanding performer was Lowell Augenstein, who won the backstroke in all three meets. "Jim" Kinney finished his third season on the squad by contributing many points in the free-style events. » » »

The men receiving their letters were: Robert Tissot, James Kinney, Willard Shattuck, and Lowell Augenstein.

--- --- --- VARSDITY SWIMMERS --- --- ---

ALPHA TAU OMEGA won the upperclass intramural swimming championship in 1932 by placing first in both the sprint and the relay. Sigma Phi Epsilon was second in the sprint, with Chi Phi second in the relay. 115 men participated in the meet held at Edwards Gymnasium. LE BIJOU of 1932, in speaking of this class at the time they were Sophomores, said that its members "have stepped forward from the ranks into positions demanding dependability and merit." The next logical step, and the one which many of the members of this class have taken, is from positions "demanding dependability and merit," to those requiring executive ability and a more expert knowledge in the respective spheres of activity. » » » The officers are: Nelson Moore, president; and Priscilla Bacon, secretary-treasurer.

REPRESENTATIVE JUNIORS

- Lois Cupps, once the sweetheart of all Ohio Wesleyan, has recently given the "Alpha Sigs" a corner on loving "Cupps." (At date of publication.)
- "King" Ferguson, the Peeble's second choice, will be known to posterity as the "father of the class of 1937," not actually, but because of his efforts as co-chairman of the Committee of "88."
- Jeanne Pontius is the retiring monarch of Monnett, the new dictator of the Y. W. C. A., and last but not least by virtue of her political astuteness and "Jonesian" attractiveness, O. W. U.'s "First Lady of the Land."

REPRESENTATIVE JUNIORS

● "Dick" Jacques is the monarchial tyrant of Le Bijou. Incidentally, he is a three-pointer, one year by accident and two by reputation.

● "Pete" Jewitt is a co-chairman of the Committee of "88." Therefore, we admonish the women of the class of 1937 that "The Thetas'll get you if you don't watch out."

● "Jack" Staples, either because of an innate propensity or through professional training, fits with remarkable aptitude into Professor Hunter's "dumb" roles. We are inclined to think it is the former.

THE Ohio Wesleyan Magazine was first published in 1915 as a quarterly for the purpose of establishing greater contact among the alumni and between alumni and college. From then on it grew to the useful monthly publication that it is today. Common interest concerning the activities and progress made by both alumni and college is maintained through the contributions which are written chiefly by the administrative officers of the faculty. Reading lists, discussions, and faculty studies are also included to serve as additional education for students after graduation. In its character and content, it is a worthy representation of the educational standards of the college and lives to unite fond memories with the present.

FRESHMAN Debate gives the opportunity to all freshmen of actually participating in inter-collegiate contests. The squad meets twice a week for coaching and practice. The men are trained by Mr. John Cartzdafner; the women, by Miss Lois Cross. After leaving the freshman debate squad, students in their sophomore year, may continue their forensic pursuits by enrolling for the course in argumentation and debate. Further ability is then rewarded by admission into the varsity debate class. » » » The men debated affirmatively and negatively against Denison on January 18. The affirmative side of the question of Philippine independence was supported by Allen Schmick, Cecil Hill, and John Mitchell, while Paul Coultrap, Paul Jones, and William Horr argued negatively. » » » The women also held a dual debate with Denison on the same question with Ruth Heistand, Anne Carrick, Nancy Johnson, speaking on the affirmative side; and Eleanor Dice, Ruth Crawford, Martha Baughn, negative.

FRESHMAN DEBATE

OHIO WESLEYAN recognizes the fact, stated by one author, that "debate is the most essentially academic of all extra-curricular activities." » » » During the past year the Varsity Debate Class numbered fifteen men and fourteen women. The principal question studied was limitation of wealth. » » » In addition to the debates of the Ohio Intercollegiate Debate League, the men contested against Oxford of England, Colgate, Bucknell, Allegheny, Tennessee, Emory, Duke, Washington and Lee, William and Mary, Howard, and American Universities. The women debated against the University of Pittsburg, West Virginia, Penn State, New York, and Allegheny. » » » Debating teams are coached by Profs. W. Roy Diem and J. T. Marshman.

It gives an opportunity and incentive to those who are interested in music, although not in the music department, and provides living advertisement throughout the state by its concert tours. Prof. Joseph C. Cleeland directs its rehearsals on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons, and Raymond Markle manages the business details of the trips. » » » In addition to the trips to Dayton, Warren, and Chicago, the club has given several concerts at chapel and at the William St. church. » » » The officers are: Robert Thomas, pres., and Jean Van Deusen, sec'y.

THE 1932 Ohio Wesleyan track season was far more successful than the statement of scores would indicate. Although winning only one of four dual meets, Wesleyan was the leader in first places gained in every meet except that at Ohio State. The same was true at the B. A. A. meet in which "Chuck" Mears was the high scorer, and in which O. W. U. failed to cop first place only because of a lack of second and third places in the individual events. » » » "Tex" Leonard, sophomore pole vaulter, set a new B. A. A. mark of 13 feet, 23¼ inches in the dual meet with Miami. Mears and Herrick were the most consistent men on the squad, the former usually winning both hurdle events and often the broad jump, while the latter came through in the distance runs. In the meet with Ohio State, Herrick was the only man who was able to garner a first place. » » » As in the past, Wesleyan's chief weakness lay in the field events. The dashes, hurdles, and distance runs were well taken care of by Findlay, Conger, Mears, Wilkinson, Herrick, and Ammerman, but the field events failed to furnish their share of points for O. W. U.

SMYTH

LEONARD

HERRICK

● Frank Smyth, Wesleyan's 880 star, took second in this event at the Buckeye Conference Meet, losing to Dudley of Miami by less than six inches. "Bob" Ross tied for fifth place in the pole vault at the Buckeye Meet. He also ran the hurdles and dashes.

● During the 1932 season, "Tex" Leonard developed into an excellent pole vaulter. As a culmination of his activities, he won the Buckeye Conference championship by clearing 12.7 feet. "Clayt" Herrick, mile and two mile man, garnered second place in both events at the Buckeye Meet.

ROSS

AUGENSTEIN

FOSDICK

THOMPSON

● Lowell Augenstein was the O. W. U. "track utility" man. He participated in the shot put, the 880, and the mile. His best performance was at the Denison meet where he won the mile run. "Bill" Fosdick threw the shot, discus, and javelin.

● "Jay" Thompson, after running many fine races during the season, won the Buckeye championship in the 440. "Jay" also ran on the championship relay team. William Wilkinson was second in both the high and low hurdles at the Buckeye Meet.

WILKINSON

GOODMAN

CONGER

● "Len" Ammerman ran the 440 and on the championship relay team. He was a consistent point winner in both these events. Richard Findlay, also a member of the relay team, was outstanding in the 100 and 220 in the Buckeye Meet.

● John Goodman threw the discus and succeeded in picking up several valuable points for the Red and Black. "Tommie" Conger ran the 440 and was No. 2 man on the Buckeye champion mile relay. He also participated in the dashes.

FINDLAY

BARBER

WINKLEMAN

HOFFMAN

● "Harry" Barber, shot putter and discus man, contributed to Wesleyan's points in all of the dual meets. "Joe" Winkleman was one of the entries in the javelin event. Gauthier also used "Joe" in the broad jump.

● Dwight Hoffman ran both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. "Chuck" Bobeck, another sprinter, gave his best performance in the dual meet with Miami where he won the 100-yard dash by defeating his teammate, Findlay, the Buckeye champion in the event.

BOBECK

THE Freshman Track Team of 1932 was one of outstanding ability. Under the direction of Coach Detrick the team was rounded into fine shape, false form was corrected, and time trials were run off. Indoor track practice was held during the winter months as a preparation for outdoor track in the spring. » » » The team was abounding in good sprinters and not lacking in fine material for the field events. During the season they succeeded in defeating both Michigan State and Depauw in dual telegraphic meets. To conclude the track season the Baby Bishops copped first place in the Buckeye Meet. » » » Mathews and White starred in the forty and hundred-yard dashes respectively, while Sayers and Ulrich performed well in the field events. The following men also received numerals: Barbour, Kettell, Wertz, Firestone, Leonard, Steckel, Anthony, Proctor, Clapp, Huit, Shaeffer, and Youtt. » » » This year several men of that freshman squad are making a name for themselves with the Red and Black.

THE time-honored method of preparing a "write-up" of the Senior Class for publication is to include some sentence such as this: "The versatility and progress shown by the class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-three have firmly established it as one of the outstanding classes in the history of Ohio Wesleyan," or, "The work of this class has established a record heretofore unexcelled." Such statements might well come from the class members themselves; but from our standpoint we prefer to say that such is true of any senior class, and if we do not point out some unusual characteristic, the wise thing to do would be to "ditto" what has been written about previous senior classes. » » » To this same idea can be added the fact that it is somewhat of a heritage, a universal reward of the more advanced knowledge and experience of seniors, rather than the result of some special ability of the particular class, for its members to take over the important positions in campus activities. » » » During the past year the resources of the University, together with those of other institutions, have been sorely tried by the drop which our economic society has taken from the widely-discussed depression into a history-making panic. The unusual character of this present senior class is evidenced by the optimistic and courageous manner in which they have carried on their academic pursuits and preparation for life vocations in spite of world chaos.

SENIORS . . . CLASS OF 1933

IN 1929 a freshman class entered the portals of Ohio Wesleyan University feeling very much grown up and possessing definite ideas about life. After four years' exposure to culture (?) they emerge—Seniors. These hardened young sophisticates are willing to admit that the flowery path of knowledge was not so easy. Barring, however, blue-books and Delaware weather, all memories are not so unpleasant. For instance: hours whiled away at "Buns"—the Sulphur Spring—following the team—the Varsities—week-end jaunts to Columbus—the quarry—skating in the winter—swimming in the summer—sleigh rides—Red, the Popcorn King—Delaware in the spring—planting fraternity pins — mass - meetings — hell week—night work in the library. Four years well spent.

REPRESENTATIVE SENIORS

● "Clayt" Herrick ran the two mile and the Student Body. He was better at running the two mile.

● Eleanor Smith, president of W. S. G. A., is our proud emancipator of feminine smokers. She now has a "drag" with all the girls.

● Marion Huit is the best all-round individual on the campus. Marion not only is invited to sorority teas, but also was asked to join O. D. K. last spring.

REPRESENTATIVE SENIORS

- "Carty" Babbs, famous forensic fraternity man, talked his way into "Prexy" of the senior class and a few Greek honoraries. Such vociferousness must be recognized.
- Eleanor Greene is a living example in refutation of that phrase, "beautiful but dumb." In addition to belonging to Phi Beta Kappa, she has twice been a Le Bijou beauty.
- Frank Dodge is a by-product of the speech department.—"Shakespeare in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these," ejaculated the little Alpha Xi Delta from just below the footlights.

MISS McCUE, a graduate of the class of '16, is Assistant to the Dean of Women at Austin Hall. She has been an instructor of Religious Education here since 1921 and is now an Associate Professor of English Bible. Miss McCue served as Y. W. C. A. Secretary in 1929. Her interests and activities on the campus make her an advisor of whom we are justly proud.

MISS McCUE

AUSTIN HALL is surrounded by a halo of increasing tradition, representing delightful experiences, fond memories, and lasting friendships. It forms a vital and beloved part in the college life of an upper-class woman. Though Monnett, surrounded by age-old tradition, is cherished by every girl, the appeal of Austin increases yearly. The charm of Austin lies not only in the tangible structure, but also in the experiences which are vital to it.

IN 1932

OHIO WESLEYAN closed an exceptionally successful baseball season in 1932 by winning nine of their twelve games and by winning the B. A. A. title with a record of six won and two lost. » » » Vezie, with a record of seven won and two lost, pitched a fine brand of ball all season. Hoff, sophomore curve artist, also proved valuable, his best effort being against Miami in their seven to six defeat. Much of the pitching success can also be laid to the work of Munson, veteran catcher. In addition to playing a fine game behind the bat, he batted over .400 for the season. » » » The infield with Dickerson at first, Burrell at second, Westfall at short, and Worcester at third played air-tight ball and also batted well. Burrell's double in the second Miami game with the bases loaded and two out in the last half of the eighth was perhaps the most timely blow of the season. Dickerson and Westfall specialized in extra-base hits, each clearing the left field fence at Edwards' field several times. » » » In the outfield, Frantz at center was the best; Elkins and Hand also were valuable.

DICKERSON

HOFF

FRANTZ

● Dale Rose saw but little service behind the bat but will probably be used to a greater extent in 1933. "Jim" Hoff, sophomore, second-string pitcher, exhibited a fine curve ball. "Chuck" Worcester played good ball at the "hot corner" and contributed many timely blows.

WORCESTER

MUNSON

● "Red" Munson, Ohio Wesleyan's first-string catcher, batted around .400 during the 1932 season. Phelps Hand played a steady game in right field. Edgar Westfall, short-stop, was valuable both afield and at bat.

HAND

RICHTER

● "Steve" Hering was a sophomore utility infielder. Henry Richter showed much promise in the few opportunities which were offered him behind the bat. "Ken" Burrell, varsity second-baseman, guarded the key-stone bag in fine style.

WESTFALL

BURRELL

UNDER the tutelage of Coach Staten the freshman baseball squad of last spring had a very beneficial season. As no games were played, the success of the squad is not to be determined by the team's scores but by the development of the players themselves. The squad on the whole learned many lessons in base-running, batting, and defensive playing in addition to gaining much invaluable experience. Many intra-squad games were played, and occasionally the yearlings would engage in scrimmages with the varsity, often to the discomfort of the upperclass-men. » » » Perhaps the main object of freshman baseball is to discover future varsity material. In this respect the season was unusually successful. The squad contained many men of marked possibilities. Stammier, an excellent lead-off man, played fine defensive ball at short-stop. Palmer, Prech, and Green, all speedy infielders and excellent hitters, held down the sacks in the order mentioned. In the outfield were Quayle, Gall, and Rulon, who in addition to batting well, fielded their positions in fine shape. Kennaw and Fullerton formed one end of the battery, while Cook worked into the catching position at the other end. In addition, Canter and Campbell also received numerals.

FRESH BASEBALL

SHATTUCK

TODD

DURING the past year the student body at Ohio Wesleyan University has become greatly interested in golf. Innumerable ardent golf fans can be seen "bumming" out to the Odevene golf course on any spring or fall day. » » » The intramural matches played off under the direction of George Staten, also coach of varsity tennis and golf, showed good management and organization. The same type of program is planned for the coming year at the Odevene club. » » » Last spring the intramural golf matches held at Odevene were conducted in the manner of a competitive elimination tournament. Both singles and doubles were played off. The winner of the singles play-off was Shattuck, Phi Kappa Tau, with W. Kirk, Chi Phi, as the runner-up. The doubles match was taken by the Sigma Phi Epsilon team composed of Palmer and Todd. Shattuck and Gordon, representing Phi Kappa Tau, finished second. » » » In the early part of the fall a handicap singles tournament was held at the Odevene golf course. Morris Brown, Delta Tau Delta, shot a gross 146 score with a handicap of 10 to get a net 136. Phil Allen, who also represented Delta Tau Delta, was runner-up with a net of 151.

WOMEN'S BASEBALL

WOMEN'S baseball was particularly successful last spring. Enough girls participated to require the use of all of the diamonds. Five leagues were formed of six sororities each. Sigma Kappa was the winner in league finals, defeating Kappa Delta, former champs.

INTERCLASS baseball was equally interesting. The keen competition culminated in the final game when the sophomores, captained by Marjorie Kellum, defeated the juniors, lead by Ruth Webster. M. Whipple and I. Minsker were senior and freshman captains.

BOLTON      VANDERVORT      BENNETT      SLUTZ

VARSITY tennis during the spring of 1932 was coached by George Staten. The team, headed by Phil Slutz, and with Bolton, Vandervort, and Bennett as the other lettermen, won four matches and lost five. There was a noticeable increase in student interest for the sport as evidenced by the turnout for all of the matches.

THE 1932 varsity golf team, captained by Richard Fischer and coached by George Staten, was victorious in two matches and was defeated in six. Ginaven and Fischer led the team in low scores. The other lettermen were W. Parker and Russell. The matches at which Ohio Wesleyan acted in the capacity of host, were played on Sunbury course.

NOW that the last volume of the Le Bijou is bound and delivered, we pause for just a moment. + + +

It has been truly a real pleasure for our entire organization to collaborate with the staff — "Dick" Jacques, Charles Line, Prof. Hull, their corps of assistants; and with the Canton Engraving & Electrotype Company in producing this edition. All of us have endeavored to grasp and interpret the spirit of school life so this volume may prove a treasure chest of memories to you in the years to come.

And, in these years which follow, when you have advertising or printing problems arising we hope The Gray Printing Company may continue to serve you. +

MR. CHARLES LINE.

Dear Charles:

Will you please take my order for one of your Bijous. Pick me one of the best ones. I like to look through the picture section in the summer time and see the earnest looking young faces of the boys and girls whom I helped finance during the past school year.

Sincerely,

BUN THE BAKER,
of Delaware.

FOR demanding something truly new and different, a radical departure from the commonplace, and for being pleased when you got it. How you've managed to complete your detailed work with such speed and precision acknowledges your executive and editorial ability. This has been a grand year and along with the work we've had a lot of fun. Good luck!

Charles H. Line

NOT just because you're our paymaster but more for being a successful business man and manager during this, the most adverse financial year in Le Bijou history, we wish you continued success.

Geo. L. Wheeler

BECAUSE you've had confidence in us and have carefully supervised the work both from editorial and financial angles. Your advice, we feel, has guided Le Bijou to a new standard of excellence. It has been a pleasure to know and to work with and for you these last two years.

FOR YOUR

BECAUSE you've handled a tremendous task and, as usual, maintained the name that has stood for quality photographs to the students of Ohio Wesleyan for more than sixty years.

PARTICULARLY for the full-length Beauty photographs and the art model shots but for other good photos as well.

INCLUDING not only Messrs. Gray and Kisabeth, who have borne the responsibility of producing Le Bijou exactly as planned but each workman also for thought, care and pride in his labor. Congratulations on a job well done.

CHARLES LINE
Business Manager

April 26, 1933

Canton Engraving Company
Canton, Ohio.

Dear Phil:

Now that everything is completed and Le Bijou of 1933 has gone to press, I feel that it would be an undying disgrace for Ohio Wesleyan if I did not express my appreciation for the way in which you have handled the book. Everything seemed to run along so smoothly that I was constantly afraid we would eventually find something radically wrong. However, it failed to turn up.

Probably the outstanding contributions to the book were those made by Hitchcock. His ideas were undoubtedly the foundation upon which the entire structure was built. Although we did not always agree, I certainly regard his ability most highly (realizing my own limitations as to artistic qualities).

Well, to make a long matter short, I am simply trying to express the appreciation which Prof. Hull, Line, and myself feel for the service, quality, and ingenuity which you have placed in Le Bijou of 1933. If the student body receives half as much "kick" from reading it as I have received from putting it together, I shall be satisfied.

Most sincerely,

Dick J
